Remarks

This beautiful villa sits at the end of a dead-end street, a few steps from the community pool and has stunning lake and golf course views. As you enter the walkway you are greeted by a gated entry gaining access to the front loggia that is accented with pavers and leads to your private entrance. The grand foyer is large and is the perfect space to display your art or family heirlooms. The kitchen has been professionally updated with stunning finishes and features high-end appliances. There is an office or den off the kitchen through dual pocket tiffany doors. The guest bedroom is spacious and provides a view to the front lanai. The living room and dining room provide for gracious living and entertaining allowing expansive views of the golf course and lake. Golf views are also from the primary suite with its large bathroom and walk-in closet. This home features high ceilings throughout, extensive levels of crown moldings, elegant features and finishes and is perfect for year-round living or as a wonderful getaway home for seasonal or frequent visitors.
